

Parent Night - Back By Popular Demand!

Sexual development is a normal process that all young people experience, and parents need tools and resources to educate and guide their children.

This 2-Hour Workshop Will Help Parents:

- ✔ Learn about the social, emotional and physical development of their child's sexuality and how to create an ongoing, age-appropriate dialogue with kids at any age and stage
- ✔ Establish themselves as their child's main resource and to set the groundwork for many conversations

This event is for parents with children as young as kindergarten and is the first of a two-part series. The second part will occur in spring 2017.

Please help spread the word about this event and save the date!

Childcare and pizza will be available for kids and grownups.

**This workshop is appropriate for parents who attended the workshop last spring as well as parents who were not able to attend.*
